

Ithaca, N. Y.,

June 22 1897

My Dear Deane:

Glad to know that you are to get away for the summer. You will enjoy the country again. As for us, we all sail (wife & 2 girls) on June 30 for Antwerp, and the family will probably live abroad for a year or two.
I shall return in the fall. You can meet me at Antwerp in care of Red Star Line. We leave here next Monday, & sail on S.S. "Kensington". I am tired out & am going for a complete recreation & shall not try to learn a thing.
Thine forever L. H. Bailey
