

Country Life in America

EDITED BY L. H. BAILEY

May 26

Dear Deane:

A long absence in the South has seriously delayed all my correspondence. Amongst the other things
is yours of Apr. 25,
which came when I was somewhere in Georgia or Alabama,
where Mrs. Bailey
was staring her eyes
out at the darkies.
The little plant is,

I suppose, Ranunculus
Ficaria.

Glad that you
liked "Nature Portraits" Coming to see me
this summer? Better come, both of you.

Thine L. H. Bailey
