

EDITOR'S OFFICE, ITHACA, N. Y.,

Apr. 6 1902

Dear Deane:

Glad the Cyclo. did not make You sick. I feel like a wandering star — nothing to do. Come out and see me, and we'll tramp the hills.

Probably the reason why the publishers did not answer you is because they have no copies of the Mech. no. It was out of print from the time it was published, Jan. is already exhausted, and there are few of the others. I have a few extras of Mech., & send you one.

Yours truly

L. H. Bailey
