Dear Deane:

I was very glad to hear from you. Yes, we have had a hard time in Itasca with fever, but the epidemic is now passed. We were in the vortex of it, but, luckily, none of us had it. However, we have had our house full of nurses, parents and convalescents. We live alongside the University Infirmary, and our house was practically an annex to it during the epidemic. Mrs. Bailey has thrown Herself into with great self-sacrifice. She is now pretty well tired out, but when I get home (in 10 days) I am going to take her South for a change.

Why don't you come and see a fellow? We will buy an extra chicken and try to give you enough to eat; and the house don't leak.
