Aucta est hisce temporibus scientia naturalis miro incremento, visumque est physicis nova multa genera instituire; cumque piscium qui thoracici vocantur ingens sit numerus, inde fit ut quo major diversitas, eo latiori distributione opus sit. E novis igitur est generibus Bodianus, qui multas amplectitur species, nonnullas pulcherrimis coloribus obductas. This is one of the new genera into which the vast number of thoracic fishes are, in consequence of the late accessions to natural history, at present distinguished. It contains several species, some of which are remarkable for the beauty of their colours: that represented on the present plate is a native of the Brazilian seas, and is represented of about half the natural size. Its native name among the Brasilians is Budiano.
