Mr. Geo. E. Devenport;

Dear Sir

At Mr. Watson's request I have looked up Cheilanthes scariosa and find that Kaulfuss, Enum. Fil. [1824] p. 266 says "Acrostichum scarosum Swartz, a Willdenowii vitrose descriptum. Ch. lentigenae haud absimile, huic generi [Cheilanthes] inferendum putō."

Presl. Rel. Haenk. [1830] p. 65 writes out the name Cheilanthes scariosa and puts his own name after it as authority.

Kunze, Linnaea, LX. [1834] p. 85 writes "Cheilanthes scariosa Kfz. ex p. 266" & refers secondly to Presl.

With Mr. W's assistance I also find that Cheilanthes elegans Desv.
was first published in Berl.
Mag. V. ^[1812] p. 325 and again in Journ. de Bot. Appl. II [1813] p. 43.

Cheilanthes myriophylla Desv.

Berl. Mag. V. same article (not in this library)
Journ. de Bot. Appl. II p. 44

Respectfully yours,
A. B. Seymour.

Seymour, Arthur Bliss. 1885. "Seymour, Arthur B. Feb 4, 1885." George Edward Davenport correspondence –.
