

317 Lamartine St.
Jamaica Plain, Dec 19. 1894

My dear Mr. Deane

Dr. Kennedy and Mr. Williams came to see us last evening, and it was decided to fix the date for the dinner at your house, Friday Dec. 28.

Thanking you very much for including me in your invitation, I regret that I do not feel able to accept it. In my present condition of health, it does not seem to me prudent to incur the risk of taking cold by going out to spend the evening at this time of year.

My brother wishes me to write that he accepts your very kind invitation, and Dr. Kennedy & Mr. Williams will be there too. I believe that they three have planned to be at the Gray Herbarium for an hour or two before going to your house.

Very cordially yours Edwin Fayson
