

A

Salem Nov 28th 77-

Dear Mr. Davenport-

I have been pursuing the laborious task of publisher, <sup>to a popular author</sup> for two days - twenty one copies of the memoir have been sold & the cash is in pocket - how long this popularity will last I do not presume to guess - I hope at this rate about twenty days, that will leave enough for sending to the dead hearts - I fear the storm will to soon be over and the rest go <sup>more</sup> slowly - I forwarded to Trübner, London; Barrell, Oxford; Geo Wall, India; & expect Dr Hance at Hong Kong will receive one through a friend -

To days list is -

E. M. Shepard Salem Roanoke Co. Va (you met him
I think here?)
F. J. Burnstend M. D. N.Y. City -

H. M. Denslow Middleton Conn -

Prof. W. J. Beal Lansing Mich -

Prof Chas H. Peck Albany N.Y -

Mr William Bott Boston

I sent Eaton a circular <sup>+ note</sup> to say that you would send copy. but he must have rec'd a circular before among those Arthur sent for this Am. I rec'd a note from him with dollar enclosed which I returned + told him that he would soon receive the book.
his was a very pleasant letter too -

I shall write again when anything of interest occurs -
Truly
I.R.

Robinson, John. 1877. "Robinson, John Nov 28, 1877." George Edward Davenport correspondence –.

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/175185>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/326952>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.