

(4)

most agreeable, and I think that it would be most agreeable personally, and I wonder if we could have it so arranged. This would be a
 great saving, and
 I hope you will
 consider it.
 We will make it
 convenient for you
 to send it to Cambridge,
 and we will
 forward it to
 Dr. Baben's
 office, and
 you will receive
 it from him.
 We will
 forward it
 to Dr. Baben
 and he will
 forward it to
 Dr. Baben's
 office, and
 you will receive
 it from him.
 We will
 forward it
 to Dr. Baben
 and he will
 forward it to
 Dr. Baben's
 office, and
 you will receive
 it from him.

Office of The American Journal of Science and Arts,

JAMES D. & E. S. DANA, PROPRIETORS.

New Haven, Ct., Aug. 23 1880

My dear Gray:

My letter went off without answering that question about sending my mail to English subscribers. We do offer this on our own account. But we have no knowledge of the names to which Baben sends his copies, so that we cannot make any more further. We are afraid to meet the mail, prepaying, and would always supply again any number that might fail, without charge.

Baben orders us to send his package through Houghton, Osgood & Co. to go by the Boston steamer. This was thought of in connection with the reputation of the school or her regard for me having any time to do with Mac. Use her gone most time & it is not given to a scholar to say many words about it. I have not made it a business - invented it - having given it half interest in the Journal my scientifically & practically

(3)

shaved & three
times

(3)

Makes great delay. last autumn through negligence in Boston, two numbers were greatly delayed.
We offered to pay half the amount of the postage if he would allow us to send him the package by mail. Refused.
But he counts his pennies close and refused. We send all our exchanges by mail.
Agents are unmanageable because their lists are their own.

Your allusion again to your President's ambition for Cambridge, shows how differently the feeling at the Journ. Sci.
is at Cambridge from what it is here. I do not think that here there is any one unlent to be Newton who Dana, James Dwight. 1880. "Dana, James Dwight Aug. 23, 1880." James Dwight Dana letters –.

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/288143>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/337747>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Arcadia (Open Collections)

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.